INTERGOVERNMENTAL AGREEMENT

This Agreement is by and between the Village of Chatham, Illinois ("Village") and Chatham Township, Illinois ("Township"), and is dated this 10 day DECEMBER, 2013.

WHEREAS, for a number of years, the Village and the Township have had an informal agreement pertaining to maintenance, repair and operation of an emergency generator, namely, a Katolight, Model No. D105FGJ4T1, John Deere 6068TF150 Diesel Driven Generator owned by the Township and located at the Township Community Building;

WHEREAS, the parties wish to formalize the informal agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE PARTIES AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Village shall continue to be responsible for maintenance and repair of the generator, maintain a minimum fuel level of 50% (no bio-diesel), and its periodic checking. A major maintenance service will be performed yearly (oil change, oil and fuel filters change, battery check, electrical evaluation, etc.) The Village shall be responsible for refueling the generator and maintaining it during emergency operations. The batteries will be replaced every two years.

2. The Township shall provide space for the generator behind the Community Building, and will limit access to the generator to authorized Township and Village personnel.

3. The Village ESDA Coordinator, or his or her designee, shall check the generator every Monday morning (during scheduled run time) to make sure it cycled for the week.

4. In the event of an emergency accompanied by a power outage, the diesel generator is set to start automatically in order to power emergency operations at the Township Community Building. Should the generator fail to start at any time, a qualified mechanic will be hired to make adjustments or repairs to the machine. A qualified diesel mechanic or electrician will be hired if the repairs needed go beyond regular maintenance.

5. This Agreement is effective upon its approval by the corporate authorities of the parties. It shall be indefinite in term, and it may be terminated by either party upon 60 days written notice, with or without cause.

AGREED effective this 10 day of DEC, 2013.
