Chatham Flashback is brought to you by the Chatham Area Public Library: In this edition, we see Sidney "Hettie" Bunker Sr in 1956 making a replacement ear. Amazing! Opal Lee had this say about Hettie, "During World War II she met a man whose car was partially destroyed. She reconstructed his chin and a doctor hearing of her ability asked her to continue doing such work at Cambridge, Indiana. There she worked with many injured servicemen reconstructing noses, ears, chins and generally all areas above the neck. For this she received a Presidential Citation. Realizing people were sensitive, she went about her work without fanfare. Her only tools being a double broiler, kitchen cutlery, skilled hands and a love of humanity." ## Maxon fundraiser Saturday

A fundraiser will be held for Chatham resident Brian Maxon Saturday, Sept. 10, from 1-3 p.m. at American Legion Post 759, located at 206 West Chestnut, just off the Veterans Memorial Square.

Maxon was recently diagnosed with a rare form of renal cell carcinoma and has been a frequent patient of Springfield and St. Louis-area hospitals since his diagnosis in March.

On May 16, Maxon had a cancerous tumor removed at St. John's Hospital in Springfield. He returned home recently and currently undergoes kidney dialysis three times a week.

Maxon, who has lost 57 pounds since his ordeal began, has taken an extended leave from his job at Aaron's Rental Center in Springfield, and his wife Sue has not been working while she devotes her days to helping Brian get healthy again. This has left them scrambling to make ends meet.

The couple's young daughter and 2015 Glenwood High School graduate, Hannah, has raised roughly $1,500 through an online fundraising website to help cover living expenses, while friends and relatives have chipped in to help the Maxons get by.

The Brian Maxon fundraising event will include a luncheon, auction, bake sale and 10 kids games. Tickets are available through www.eventbrite.com by searching under "chatham city and causes" and "Chatham IL." Pricing is as follows: adults $15, kids $10, and children aged 3 and under are free. Tickets are also available by contacting April Cook at 2414-2224.

Thank You,
