CHATHAM JAYCEES
1987 SWEET CORN FESTIVAL
PERCEIVED PROBLEMS & PROPOSED SOLUTIONS

PROBLEM: Underage Drinking

SOLUTION:

1. At the 1987 Sweet Corn Festival all patrons desiring to purchase alcoholic beverages will be required to show proof of age and wear wrist bands. Alcoholic beverages will not be dispensed to persons not wearing wrist bands.
2. At the 1987 Sweet Corn Festival during peak evening hours, 8:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m., we will increase the number of security officers to 12 or 14.
3. It is also our intent to post signs around the park with the following wording:

"NO ALCOHOL MAY BE BROUGHT INTO THE PARK"

"ANY PERSONS FOUND CONSUMING ALCOHOL WHO ARE NOT OF AGE ARE SUBJECT TO PROSECUTION"

PROBLEM: Crowd Control and Street Parties Outside the Park

SOLUTION: It is our belief that the items we discussed as proposed solutions in the area of underage drinking will help in this area. We also plan to have some of our security officers follow the flow of the crowd out of the park as a method of persuading people to leave town immediately after the festival and not loiter on side streets. In the past we have operated under the assumption that it was our responsibility to be primarily responsible for crowd control within the park with security officers hired by us, and the village having primary responsibility for areas outside the park with village officers.

PROBLEM: Property Damage and Litter Control Outside the Park

SOLUTION: This year we plan to canvas the streets around the park on both Saturday and Sunday mornings and on both Friday and Saturday nights as the crowd leaves the park and we will try to have them leave their litter in the park. Having some of our security officers follow the crowd out of the park should also help in this area. It is our belief that this will help cut down on any instances of damage to private property.

The Village is to be named as additional insuree in liability policy in the amount of $1,000,000.00.
