“Chatham has been my home for fifteen years and I absolutely love everything about it. It is a caring community where I have made great business contacts and friends. I have been able to make a difference by being active in the community. It’s a great place to raise a family and have a business.”

“I love our connection to the great organizations in Chatham. Our patrons benefit from the strong relationships our non-profit organizations in Chatham share. The Library, in particular, can call upon these groups at any time to provide programming and support to our community. The Chatham community is very active in these organizations. For our size, we have so many ways to get involved. There is always a great cause to support and to feel connected to our community. Chatham is great for that.”
